

Local Entrepreneurs Nevin & Hannah Buconjic Join Forces with Northern Credit Union for Fundraiser Benefiting Local High Schools

For Immediate Release

(Sault Ste. Marie – July 2024) – Northern Credit Union and father-daughter duo Nevin and Hannah Buconjic invite the community to celebrate entrepreneurship, promote literacy, and support local students through Read Local fundraiser.

Join Nevin and Hannah at Northern's McNabb Street branch on Thursday, August 8th from 11am – 1pm to enjoy activities and giveaways, purchase a copy of 25 Money-Making Business Ideas for Kids and Teens, and learn first-hand entrepreneurial skills from Hannah Buconjic who will be selling lemonade and ice cream through Hannah's Summer Treats.

Nevin and Hannah's co-authored book, 25 Money-Making Business Ideas for Kids and Teens is a practical guide for young entrepreneurs looking to start a fun and profitable business, and is available for purchase at Northern Credit Union for $15. When purchased in-branch, 75% of proceeds are donated to local high schools in the community, with the remaining 25% being reinvested into the program to support future author partners.

This special event promises a fun-filled afternoon with opportunities to support local education while fostering entrepreneurial spirit among young people. Attendees can participate in interactive activities, enjoy delicious treats, and engage with the authors. Northern Credit Union is committed to enriching the community through initiatives like Read Local, which highlights the importance of literacy and business skills for the next generation.
